HANDLING YOUR DECK

bonding & storing

CONNECT WITH YOUR DECK

carry it with you

- keep it in your purse or pocket
- constant contact will allow you both to bond
- take it out and touch the cards when you feel drawn to them

visual bonding

- sit with each card
- take note of symbols and feelings evoked
- understand the imagery and patterns of the deck

interview spread

- talk directly to your deck with an interview spread/intuitive spread
- understand its unique strengths and limitations

meditate

- sit with the deck in your hands
- visualize the cards in your mind
- let your intuition guide the conversation between you and the deck

STORAGE

Cloth: wrap your cards in cloth for a gentle way to protect them.

Original box: the box or container that your deck comes in is sturdy enough to hold them.

Tarot bags: good for traveling with your decks, customizable.

Tarot boxes: sturdiest way to store cards, perfect for long time use, customizable.

Tarot Tip

Watch for patterns! Reoccurring cards, symbols, and numbers may be trying to catch your attention.

CLEANSING YOUR DECK

respect & intention

RESPECT YOUR DECK!

Respect and good intentions are key when working with tarot. Failing to respect the cards and what they have to say can lead to false readings and negative energy.

Charging your Cards

Charging your cards is key to achieving positive, helpful readings.

Charging your cards can be done with intention alone, but having tools can help.

Ways to Charge:

- crystals
- moon/sunlight
- meditation
- salt
- reordering cards

EXPEL NEGATIVE ENERGY

crystals

- place your deck around or under cleansing crystals
- charge with different crystals for personalized use

sun/moonlight

- set your deck in sun/moon light to cleanse and charge at the same time
- beware of leaving your deck in the sun for too long, as sunlight can fade colors

sage/smudging

- waft your deck through sage smoke or use a smudge stick of your choice

- be careful not to burn your cards!

visualizing

- meditate with your deck
- picture a white light surrounding it, then purging any negative energy out of it
- also works for charging

reorder

- organize your deck back to its original order (major arcana 0-22, court cards ace-king)
- reshuffle until you feel the deck has been "reset"
